Start in Lima. Visit Villa Maria Del Triunfo, a community where they harvest fog for water. From Lima, travel to Pucallpa and visit several communities in the Amazon.

1. Travel from Lima to Santiago to Calama and San Pedro de Atacama. Spend several days exploring the issues and communities and schools in the Atacama Desert, the driest desert in the world.

2. Travel from Calama to Santiago and on to Patagonia, traveling through Punta Arenas and Puerto Natales enroute to Torres del Paine National Park. Then spend final days of expedition in Santiago.

3. Travel from Calama to Santiago and then back to Santiago, spending time in Santiago discussing the unique educational challenges that face the many remote and isolated communities on this spectacular continent.